1. I have only begun to bless you. Have I begun to bless you yet?

2. The beginning of sorrows has ended, but on the earth now comes many things people never thought they'd see; enjoying some and the repelling of others, at least trying to, both, for great and cataclysmic things come upon the earth now and who will be my word listening to my word being my word in the earth through the earth today? My lovely will that I have only begun to bless with my words being my words in the earth and farther than can be imagined it this time; at this point in time; so delicate in matter, not; but transparent and indestructible, life now lived, perfect in time, -lessness, now takes the stage; center stage not, but I do, for he giveth it me.

3. I have only begun to write, bless you, with all that my word is enjoys now a great deal of blessing that has been spoken about briefly in these words at times certain ways, but now elicited will be by the press and those foreign not, and those foreign.

4. Again will be stated for the not so slow who will begin to bless others through my words, these words, all not life, not; for the greatest of these is love and love now stands and repeats the words I have given them. Alleluia! Amen.

5. I love you and give you me, new styles in writing, living, and being the I am on the earth. Thank you. Amen.

6. I love you and give you me I do, I have, new thinking, vocabulary, and places to live; places to be now, in me, far beyond the maddening crowd, witness only of me now comes to show teach tell you all things of a realm far away. I give you me undoubtedly indubitably and without reserve. I reserve not the right to change your commands, for I have given you all of me, I give you me, and me makes no reservation on me in the things that I do now.

7. Can you see what I have said? Witness now the greatest move of my hand, being it, aforementioned many times in these words, who loves you comes now, in the name of the Lord, not, but me, wholly me, fully me comes now, loves you; and propels you, not; but lets you decide all things about the teaching me that I provide now through loves uncommon, ways and means of only me. I decide not, you do -- give you me I do, I have, all things in my reserve for you, but I hold them until you need them, not; I hold them until I command the blessing, not; you do, bless me now, for I have come, called, and conquered, the notme in me exists no more, but I do, clean clarity crystal of only me my word pure and forever lasting, I am, in charge of all things not but me, in charge of all things me, pure and holy my name, me is one, loving you all to be.

8. Will you come into me? In love will you be me? Thrilling me, not; but the greatest thrill is now coming about, lightspeed, to see the nations, the nations being me, enjoying me, who thrills at my words being spoken now in that nation.

9. I enjoy me spoken now for I live the life I am, now before you, a man who loves only you, not; but me perfectly and I am you loving you to be me. I am perfect one and holy, is my name now. One and loving you, is my name; always ones, not; for some of my commands imperfect were, but I change all that now, for I am perfect holy and one; at your command not, but command central opens now, in ways not a man of, but me perfectly me, and I love you again with all my heart. Soul not, for I have none; I crucified that thing, and now I love you more than ever ever loved me, for I am love and I ever love now. The crucible not, it's over. The beginnings begun. Amen. Hallelujah! Of new things now I do, tell about, write about; it's over, not; the greatest of these is love just beginning on the earth now to stand and be recognized a man, glory filled, glorious, and giving my glory to a man, I have -- see John 17 in action now, a flesh man, loving you like I do for I am me upon the earth. See me seventeen ways, not; but me perfectly me perfected upon the earth walking in fields of glory now I write about profusely, thinking not about another, but commanding the my father's business, that I write about, for I am its commander not, leader not, but simple man walking the earth in fields of glory being, seamless with both, I establish now upon the earth commandership simpleship that leadership really is. Servanthood upon the earth, not; but leadership exercised by a notme not, but me perfectly, and leadership love happiness and joy, that I lead in being here, establishing joy central, to me, being it to all the earth who will listen, love my words, becoming them. Ingesting me central, now established and cannot be missed for I am me, holy and unabated now.

10. I love you all, this much, and I died. To bring you these words now, I did, I have, I do stands now before you, loving you, bowing. To bring you the truth -- you are I am. I make all things holy not, I reveal it; and now you know my name is revealer, truth, I bring to the nations who I am; not a doctrine, belief, creed of anything unholy; for now I am the me perfected, and truth, being it -- her him me one, altogether lovely, loveliness established on the earth now. And farther realms compete for me, not; but I go to them freely and river my love. Freely given I have received, and now I freely give. I receive all things without charge now, for charging I am, not; I give away everything not, I command the blessing, it is me, I speak the word of truth, I am it her him, we us, are one, in the realm that knows no lack whatsoever -- we creators are -- the creator, of truth -- we speak it, we create it by being it. Amen. In the earth, all over, and farther realms come here now to train, teach, and learn being me, I do now at my school of truth, words, in action, that I've spoken just like this, I teach now, how, to speak the spoken word of truth being it in action.

11. I give you me in ways never imagined by man, for you are holy, I am holy, and you reveal now to the nations I am, them, and holy pervasiveness that I am wreaks not of sorrow, but eradicating all sorrow I do now through my word of truth that I am that I speak that I take to the nations, realms afar and being that I am which I am I am before you all now a simple humble man speaking my words, that eradicates truth, not; but establishes it now in the hearts of mankind, my kind; my kindness known in the nations now, my leadership established, I bow before all. Servanthood rots, not; but leadership invests in truth now. My ministry, not; my me, before all, known now. I perish not. I go forth to the nations, creating truth, for I be it. Amen.

Investing much time in sorrow to make it all perfectly me; eradicated sorrow will leave me alone, not; but highly sorrow not alone; for I have invested much in it, not; but a regal it, not; I teach it how to be leadership. Eradicated sorrow will be regal and not cut off.
